

where who what is akwa The seventh alive and kicking weekend away returns to Quinta for fun, games and more - it's akwa 2010 - follow the star.

Main sessions, workshops, worship and bible studies will explore the life of Jesus and what it means for us today. There will be a whole host of other activities including Saturday night entertainment, question time, challenges, sports, music, games, the legendary early morning walks, prayer room and some all new stuff for this year. On Sunday we'll bring everything together in worship, sharing our experiences of the weekend in praise of God. There will also be time throughout the weekend for any other questions or issues you may want to discuss.

With excellent food, beautiful countryside, a change to get away with old friends and make new ones, it's a weekend not to be missed.

akwa 2010 - follow the star!

The weekend is open to all young people who will be of high school age or above (11-18) in September 2009. As with all alive and kicking events, everybody attending will be at different stages of their Christian faith, you do not have to be a Christian or attending a church to come along. neither do you have to be a Kinver resident or alive and kicking member. The aim is to explore God, Jesus and Christianity in an exciting and relevant way.

Opened in 1986, Quinta Christian centre is a large multi-purpose centre which boasts high quality accommodation, beautiful surroundings and excellent facilities. Bedrooms are single-sex rooms of varying sizes. All meals will be provided by our excellent catering team and are included in the cost.

alive and kicking is part of church for young people in Kinver and is supported by Christians in Kinver and the surrounding area. we meet each Sunday evening from 7-9pm at the youth hut behind Edgecliff school for games, music, bible study, discussion, visiting speakers, socials, sports, food and many other activities. The leadership team meet together regularly and the team has a wealth of experience working with young people and a sound base of Christian training and experience. alive and kicking is part of ad33, a Christian charity in Kinver.

"This is the first time I have been away with ak. I didn't think I would enjoy it this much, but I was wrong. It has been brilliant. Every bit of the weekend I enjoyed. The leaders are understanding and nice. Thanks you for making this weekend so enjoyable for me."

"I have enjoyed it so so so much and don't want to leave. I have made new friends and it has helped me to understand God more."

"akwa was brill! I really really enjoyed it! it was a really good to spend some time getting to know others better and to learn more about God. I hope I can go next year!"

"This was my first akwa and I enjoyed every minute of it. The weekend was packed with things for us to do. It was good that anyone could get something from it however deep their faith. It was a great weekend and I'm looking forward to next year!"
