

akwa 2011

25th-27th March

What is akwa?

akwa is an annual weekend for young people where we can explore matters of life and faith and have a lot of fun.

Who can come?

The weekend is open to anybody of high school age. Everybody attending will be at different stages of their faith - you do not have to be a Christian or go to a church to come. Neither do you have to be a Kinver resident or a member of alive and kicking - all are welcome.

What do people say about it?

“This was my first akwa and I enjoyed every minute of it. The weekend was packed with things for us to do. It was good that anyone could get something from it however deep their faith. It was a great weekend and I'm looking forward to next year!”

“akwa was brill! I really really enjoyed it! it was a really good to spend some time getting to know others better and to learn more about God. I hope I can go next year!”

What do you need to know?

Where

Quinta Christian Centre, Quinta Hall, Weston Rhyn, Oswestry, Shropshire, SY10 7LR.

Quinta is a large multi-purpose centre with high quality accommodation, beautiful surroundings and excellent facilities. Bedrooms are single-sex rooms of varying sizes. All meals will be provided by our skilled catering team and are included in the cost.

When

Leave from Edgecliff High School turning circle at 6pm on Friday 25th March 2011. Return around 6pm on Sunday 27th March 2011. Travel by coach and car.

How much

We are asking for £20 per person, full board and all inclusive. However, any amount you wish to give above this will be gratefully received - ad33 is funded by donations from individuals and charitable organisations. The weekend will cost ad33 around £60 per person.

Please make cheques payable to 'ad33'.

Who are we?

ad33 is a Christian charity which aims to support young people by providing safe spaces where they can explore matters of life and faith. We are part of the Church in Kinver. We run alive and kicking (Sundays, 7-9pm), various small groups and a monthly meeting point.

The leadership team and speakers have a wealth of experience working with young people and a sound base of Christian and youth work training and experience.
